DETAILED ACTION

1. Applicant's election without traverse of Group I in Paper No. 7, filed 11 October 2001 is acknowledged.

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 1-9, 15-19, 20-22 and 27-30 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Rockwell, Jr. et al. (U.S. 6,296,919 B1).

Rockwell, Jr. teaches the use of a mold with holes, heated by a press to vulcanize a foam rubber mat with projections and a fabric top (abstract, col. 7, lines 5-15). The instant invention claims a foam rubber mat with projections where the skin of the projections is thicker than the skin of the rest of the mat. It would have been obvious for one of ordinary skill in the art to have understood that there would have been a temperature difference between the surface of the mold next to the heated press and the surface against the main body of the mat, which would result in higher temperatures near the bottom of the projection. Applicant discloses that this temperature difference produces a thicker skin at the bottom of the projections, which are closer to the bottom of the mold. This structure meets the instant claim language.

3. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

4. Claims 1-9, 15-19, 20-22 and 27-30 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-9 of U.S. Patent No.

6,296,919. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the instant claims recite a skin thickness that would have been obvious for the article of the patent to have as a result of the method used to make the article claims of the '919 patent as noted above.

Art Unit: 1772
